

Notes 2

1. What is an Operating System?

An operating system provides all fundamental software features of computer. An OS enables you to use the computer's hardware providing you the basic tools that make the computer useful.

2. What is a kernel?

An OS kernel is a software component that's responsible for managing low-level features of the computer, including the following managing system hardware, memory allocation, CPU time, and program to program interaction.

3. Which other parts aside from the kernel identify an OS?

The Kernel is at the core of any OS, but it's a component that most users don't directly manipulate. Instead, most user interact with a number of other software components. such as:-

- Command-Line shells
- GUI
- Utility and Productivity program.
- Libraries.

4. What is Linux?

Linux is a Unix-like operating system popular in academic and business environment.

6. List at least 4 Linux characteristics:

- Open source
- Secure
- Multi-user
- Flexible

7. What is Debian?

Debian is an all-volunteer organization dedicated to developing free software and promoting the ideas of the free software community.

8. List and define the different types of licensing agreements

- Property License.
- Open-source license.
- Free software license.
- Public Domain.

9. What is Free Software? Define the 4 freedoms.

Free softwares give user the freedom to study, modify and share the software.

10. What is virtualization?

Virtualization allows one physical computer to run multiple computer.